

Who is CPSC?

The California Product Stewardship Council (CPSC) is a coalition of local governments and their associations related to solid waste, recycling, resource conservation, environmental protection, water quality, and other cross-media issues (Associates).

In Partnership with non-government organizations (NGOs), businesses, and individuals (Partners) across California, CPSC has created a powerful network of people supporting product stewardship and extended producer responsibility (EPR).

CPSC Associates

Map of CPSC Associated Counties and Cities with EPR Resolutions

As of February 9, 2015
138 resolutions have been passed by California local jurisdictions and organizations supporting product stewardship!

Key to Map:

-  City has passed an EPR resolution
-  County has individually passed an EPR resolution
-  County is a member of an association<sup>1</sup> that has passed an EPR resolution or policy statement, but has not individually passed an EPR resolution
